Introduction

Welcome to the World of Human Design!

Thank you so much for your interest and curiosity! The sample report you are holding in your hands offers a fascinating first glimpse into the energetic architecture of a well-known personality. It highlights the individual puzzle pieces, genetic predispositions, and the unique blueprint that shape this person in the spotlight.

Please keep in mind, however: a report like this is a wonderful starting point, but it cannot and will NOT replace a full, personal analysis. Our true essence is infinitely more complex than the mere sum of its parts. The magical interplay of all aspects, the nuances, and the unique life story are what create the living, breathing big picture. This level of depth simply cannot be generated by a computer program—it requires the trained eye, experience, and artistry of a certified Human Design Analyst.

So, look at this overview as a source of inspiration and a first "technical" blueprint. The real power of Human Design lies in its practical application anyway: Type, Strategy, and Authority are simple, mechanical tools that you can immediately observe in daily life—whether in celebrities or within yourself. They are the key to shedding conditioning and truly being your authentic self.

The Human Design Synthesis

The Human Design System combines ancient and modern sciences in its unique body diagram, thereby making the genetic structure and function of a human being visible and logically comprehensible.

Let us begin by examining the Human Design Mandala.

The inner wheel shows the zodiac signs, which you probably know from astrology. In the outer wheel, the 64 hexagrams from the Chinese I Ching are arranged. In a first step, we can thus convert an astronomical position into a hexagram or equate it. Each hexagram is further divided into 6 Lines (Yin and Yang), whereby the astronomical position can be represented as a hexagram (the heading) and a Line (the detailed theme).

Astrology and the I Ching are ancient sciences. In our modern sciences, the same contents can be found in Quantum Physics and in Genetics:

Astrology speaks of the 'quality of time', which can be read from the position of celestial bodies. Proof of this has always been difficult.

Quantum Physics shows that neutrinos are mass particles. This was one of the most important findings of modern research; until a few decades ago, neutrinos were thought to be energy particles. Neutrinos - which mainly originate in nuclear fusion processes in stars - are present in the universe in unimaginably large numbers: approximately 66 billion (!) of them penetrate us here and now per second per square centimeter. It is in THIS way that information or quality is transferred from every celestial body to us. These countless, tiny material particles penetrate everything at nearly the speed of light and inform and condition us and generate the so-called 'quality of time' (weak interaction between material parts ensures energy and momentum exchange).

The ancient I Ching describes the 64 fundamental building blocks or properties of life.

Modern Genetics knows that human DNA is constructed from 64 codons, which code the 20 essential amino acids that correspond exactly with the structure of the hexagrams from the Chinese I Ching.

The ancient Yin and Yang Lines are, expressed in our terminology, simply a binary code.

About 70% of the neutrinos that reach us here on Earth come from our Sun. This is why the Sun position is of such great significance in astrology. 70% of the information that reaches and penetrates us comes from our Sun. The remaining 30% comes from other sources, mainly from stars outside our solar system. These neutrinos carry different information - from other stars, and from planets and moons when they penetrate these celestial bodies on their way.

And naturally, the information transfer does not stop with us: we live within an ocean of particles, are continuously penetrated and informed from all sides and naturally also inform the particles with our quality in return. We are therefore truly in a constant and never-ending connection with the entire universe.

This is the Mandala that connects Astrology with Physics and the I Ching with Genetics.

At the center of the wheel stands the Human Design BodyGraph, which also connects ancient and modern. The so-called Centers in the BodyGraph are derived from the Indian Chakra system and correspond to organs, glands and hormonal processes in our human biology.

The Centers are connected by Channels - which in turn have an affinity to the developmental paths of the Jewish Kabbalah and represent a Quantum - a whole that is greater than the sum of its parts.

The Human Design System is truly a synthesis of ancient and modern sciences and wisdom.

The information from the wheel is now transferred to the corresponding position (in the Centers) in the BodyGraph.

Everything that is written or drawn in black is the information from the time of birth. This represents your Personality, that which you identify with, that which is consciously accessible to you.

Everything that is shown in red comes from a point in time exactly 88 solar degrees (approximately 3 months) before your birth (completely independent of what type of birth it was). This is your Design date, the point in time at which the infrastructure of your physical body was ready to receive and house your consciousness (one could also call it the 'soul'). It represents your unconscious, the physical, bodily side of your being.

The interaction between conscious and unconscious now represents the Quantum, the whole. It is the representation of your genetic imprint, your mechanical mode of functioning. And one can easily distinguish which aspects of your being are conscious and which operate without your knowledge.

When two celestial bodies are positioned at the hexagrams at both ends of a Channel, they form a Definition, an activated Channel and thus two activated Centers. This is how your individual BodyGraph emerges, usually with open (non-activated) or defined (activated) Gates (hexagrams), Centers and Channels.

Very importantly: this is NOT a judgement! Having an activation is neither good nor bad, it is simply one of two possibilities, like two sides of a coin. It is what it is, and there is absolutely no need to want to change, improve or develop anything. You can think of it like your blood type or eye color - it is your mechanical configuration and it is perfectly fine!

Type and Strategy

Type and the corresponding Strategy is the first and most fundamental distinction between human beings made in the Human Design System. Belonging to one of the 4 Types is one of the most important pieces of information and shows you simply and clearly what your first step towards a personally correct decision is.

Manifestor/Initiator

You belong to the Manifestor type, the only type designed to initiate

You belong to the Manifestor/Initiator type, the only type designed to initiate.

As a Manifestor, you are one of the few (about 9%) who are designed to act independently and set things in motion. Your strategy is to inform those who will be affected before you take action. This is not about asking for permission, but about reducing resistance and creating allies.

You have a closed and repelling aura that gives you natural independence but can also create distance from others. When you inform before acting, you create peace around you and can move through life with less resistance.

When you fail to inform and simply act, you encounter anger - both from others and within yourself. Your signature of peace comes from correctly informing and then freely initiating what is correct for you.

As a Manifestor, your peace comes from the freedom to initiate and the understanding that informing is not a limitation but a tool that clears your path.

Inner Authority

After Type and Strategy, your Inner Authority shows you the next step towards making personally correct decisions.

Splenic

Your Inner Authority lies in the Splenic Center

With this form of Inner Authority, you are an existentialist who can and should trust their body awareness in every moment. The brief and spontaneous information from your body speaks once in the now and always serves to ensure your wellbeing and safety.

If you try to make decisions with the mind, you "drown out" your own awareness and thereby endanger your safety.

Trusting your Inner Authority keeps you healthy and vital and brings you a fundamental sense of wellbeing.

Definition

Single Definition

In your Bodygraph, all activated potentials are connected to each other. You experience yourself as a "whole", as a person who is not "missing" anything.

Your Profile

Your Profile shows the way in which you move through life, so to speak the costume you wear. After Type, Strategy and Inner Authority, it is another key aspect of your being.

Investigator/Martyr

This Profile shows that you are a person who first turns inward to get to the bottom of things and needs a stable foundation to feel secure. During your investigation, you prefer not to be disturbed - you would rather engage with things on your own, in your own space. It is an extremely creative Profile that builds its foundations in withdrawal and can ultimately become an authority.

If a foundation turns out to be unstable, your anarchistic nature emerges, capable of throwing everything overboard to seek a new, correct basis. In doing so, there is always the risk of developing a pessimistic attitude when possibilities or potentials for stability seem unattainable.

You are fundamentally more occupied with yourself and seem to stumble into other people or situations by chance. If bonds or relationships are entered into without a stable foundation, they can quickly fall apart. All the more important it is for you to find your own stability and authority in solitude, so that you can then also build correct connections.

Your secret lies in deeply and thoroughly investigating what interests you before you act. You have a good sense for strength and weakness and can use that to support both yourself and others.

The nine Centers are energy hubs that transform or convert the life force as it flows through the BodyGraph.

Defined and Undefined Centers

In most people's BodyGraphs, it is common for some Centers to be defined or colored and others to be undefined, open or white. The Centers that are defined are considered fixed, meaning they operate with a reliable and steady energy through the aura that is unique and recognizable. The undefined Centers are not broken, they are not empty, they do not need to be repaired. They are the places where we are most vulnerable to external influences, and that makes them valuable learning Centers. The undefined Centers become the greatest sources of our education and our maturing wisdom. Since most of us are made up of a combination of defined and undefined Centers, it is important to accept that neither is better than the other. The process of living within ourselves is one of recognizing where we are available to absorb the conditioning of others through these undefined or open Centers, what effect this conditioning has on us, and how to put it in its proper context. What we call wisdom is to achieve a functioning understanding that allows us to deal with the world around us, with the school of life, without losing our center and our direction in life.

Conditioning

From birth, we are permanently in the aura field of our mother, father, siblings, relatives and others. Our undefined or open Centers are thereby permanently defined or energetically filled by the definitions of others. Over time, we are subtly but deeply influenced by their energy fields - and equally by their growing expectations of us. This is what the Human Design System describes as conditioning. Although we never completely lose contact with who we truly are, various layers of familial and societal conditioning have been placed over our true Self by the time we reach the age of seven, and this creates distortions and confusion.

One cannot avoid or escape conditioning, nor is it inherently something bad. It is simply unavoidable. Planetary transits, people and all life forms, including insects, animals and plants, connect with us and can influence our thought patterns, our behavior and our decisions, especially when we are not grounded in our Design through Strategy and Inner Authority. Throughout our lives, the natural curiosity of our open Centers attracts people who are defined in those Centers. Absorbing their energy frequencies puts pressure on our openness and triggers our mind to think about everything we lack.

The open places in our chart are regarded as the sources of our Not-Self, simply because they are energetically inconsistent and unreliable. When we begin to confuse what we experience through our openness (through what we are not) with our defined or true Self (what is consistent within us), we get into trouble. The Human Design System carefully examines where we are open to the effects of conditioning and distinguishes that from our definition. It shows us that when we follow our Strategy and Authority, we are perfectly and uniquely equipped to face and resolve the dilemmas of our Not-Self constructs.

The Defined Heart Center

With your Defined Heart Center, you belong to approximately 35% of people and possess consistent willpower, are able to keep promises, and have a natural competitive spirit. However, ego-driven behavior can alienate others and create pressure.

The Defined Spleen Center

You belong to approximately 53% of people with a Defined Spleen Center and thus have reliable body awareness. If you question it, you run the risk of ignoring valuable signals. The Spleen Center only "speaks" in the present moment and does not repeat itself. When you learn to trust your intuition, security and (physical) well-being arise.

The Defined Throat Center

You belong to approximately 71% of people with a Defined Throat Center and thus have a fixed way of speaking and acting. If you are not correct, your timing can be off, leading you to speak or do too much.

The Undefined Solar Plexus Center

You belong to approximately 50% of people with an Undefined Solar Plexus Center and are not (like the other 50%) in a constant ebb and flow of feelings. But you absorb the emotionality of other people and run the risk of identifying with it. This empathy can lead to an avoidance of arguments and confrontations in order to escape the intensity that is uncomfortable for you. Your gift and potential wisdom lies in the potential to recognize and distinguish between feelings.

The Undefined G Center

You belong to approximately 54% of people with an Undefined G Center and thus have no fixed sense of identity. You are not here to know who you are, but rather have the gift of empathizing with the identity of others and experiencing the various forms of (higher) love and direction. Your physical environment is of central importance for this. In order to correctly experience other people, you must be in the correct place for you.

The Undefined Ajna Center

You belong to approximately 49% of people with an Undefined Ajna Center and thus have an open, flexible mind that can be conditioned by a wide variety of mental concepts, but is also capable of recognizing the truth and wisdom within them. Your mental openness can become a worry about not being intelligent (enough) and lead to a rigid clinging to ideas or concepts.

The Undefined Head Center

Your Undefined Head Center shows that inspiration for you (as for approximately 70% of people) comes from the outside, and you often occupy yourself with questions that have nothing to do with you. The conditioning mental influence of others can overwhelm you and distort your decisions.

The value of your Undefined Head Center lies in your potential to understand which stimulation is important and which is not, and which people are stimulating and which are not.

The Undefined Sacral Center

You belong to approximately 30% of people with an Undefined Sacral Center and thus do not have consistent work and physical energy available. Your abilities lie in other areas, and it is particularly important to ensure that you do not overexert and exhaust yourself (when trying to keep up with your environment) and to respect your limits. Your gift and potential wisdom lies in recognizing who has what kind of workforce.

The Undefined Root Center

You belong to approximately 32% of people with an Undefined Root Center and thus have no fixed way of dealing with stress. You easily allow yourself to be put under pressure from the outside and then try to escape this influence by acting especially quickly. Your gift and potential wisdom lies in recognizing which kind of pressure can be useful for you. It is important for you to be patient and not to act hastily.

The Channels

Your Channels represent concrete characteristics and abilities that are available to you at all times and that constitute the core of your being.

The Channel of The Wavelength: 48-16

A Design of Talent

This Channel is about the art of mastery, about depth and about skills from which a possible talent can develop. It is a logical Channel; you will therefore always be engaged with testing patterns that should be repeated and practised until a skill is improved and perfected.

Talent often seeks recognition! It may therefore be that you need to wait for support, funding or collaboration in order to develop your mastery. Be patient and, in the meantime, explore your depth and refine your taste.

The Channel of The Money Line: 45-21

A Design of a Materialist

In the past, this Channel stood for the tribal ruler who is independent and in control. Today, it is more about ‘serving and protecting’, beginning with the protection of your own interests, which are useful and valuable to others when they are employed correctly (according to Type and Strategy). Independence is still enormously important to you, but it also means responsibility: enjoying the success or bearing the blame.

This Channel represents a materialistic force, but taking on too much, driven by the desire for control, can be its shadow side.

Your Incarnation Cross

The two Sun-Earth axes form a heading for your life, a theme that runs like a common thread throughout and provides the foundation for your individual purpose and meaning in life. However, there is nothing to do - except to be correct according to your Type and to observe yourself and your life. Then purpose and meaning unfold on their own.

Right Angle Cross of Rulership (47/22 | 45/26)

The headline for your life could be: "The lessons of history..."

Your knowledge and memories are the foundation for building your leadership quality.
